

INDEX

A

accessories ecosystem, Apple iPod, 95
adoption S-curve for new technology, 17
AdRank, 34
Adranking tool (Google), 32
AdSense, 36
advertising
 convincing advertisers to pay for keywords on GoTo, 30
 costs, reduction by Flickr, 13
 direct advertiser network effects, Google, 28
 expenditures in the U.S., 24
 online advertising by search engine sites, 23
 popularity and click-through rate measurement with AdRank, 34
 revenue per search (RPS), 39 self-service, with Google Adwords, 33
advertising-based revenue model, 11
Adwords, contribution to Google's success, 32 affiliates' share of value created by a network, 30

Amazon, ix
 benefits for sales of offline products, 88
 competence syndication, 76–79
 letting other sellers into the store, 77
 sharing backoffice competencies, 78
analysis of value, 10
Andreesen, Marc, 81
annotations, photos on Flickr, 8 AOL, acquisition of equity stake by Google, 38–40
Apache web server, 75
APIs (application programming interfaces)
 Facebook, 82
 open to outside developers in mashups, 80
AppExchange, 72
Apple
 iPhone, 100
 iPod (see iPod)
architectural innovation, 87
"architecture of participation", 51
Asterisk, 97

AT&T Mobility, cellular provider for iPhone, 100
ATM cards, innovation and, 88

B

Bebo (social networking site), 60
Benioff, Marc, 72
Beta/VHS standards battle, video tape
recorders, 38
Bezos, Jeff
analyzing need for web services, 78
turning competitors into customers, 77
Billions With Zero Knowledge blog, 91
blogging
AdSense on blogging sites, 36
integration by Flickr, 9 online syndication and, 69 “burn rate”, 15
business lessons from online social networks, 46
business models
as profit engines, 10
Web 2.0 and, viii
(see also business plans)
business online social networking, 51 business plans, 103–115
building Web 2.0 plan
competitive analysis, 111
financials, 113
management and executive team, 113
market analysis, 109
products and services, 112
timeline and milestones, 112 building Web 2.0 plans, 109
key considerations while developing for Web 2.0, 114
steps in Web 2.0 strategic planning, 103– 108 activating network effects, 104
building on collective user value, 103
dynamically syndicating competence, 107
recombining innovations, 108
working through social networks, 106
Butterfield, Stewart, 8
buyers’ share of value created by a network, 30

C

capital costs, online networks, 25
cash flow
comparing in physical world, Web 1.0, and Web 2.0, 19
costs of growth, 15

discounted cash flow (DCF), 14
impact of collective user value, 19
CDDB (CD database), 96
cell phone services, Apple iPhone, 100
cell phones, using Jajah, 99
Cerf, Vint, 80
Chicagocrime.org, 79
Christensen, Clayton, 86
click-through rate measurement, AdRank, 34
collaborative analysis, Web 2.0 business models, 111
collaborative innovation
bridging, not disrupting, 93
crowdsourcing, 91
democratized innovation, 89
lessons learned, 101
online recombinant innovation, 93
open source, ecosystem, and platform, 92 platform innovation
Apple iPod, 94–96
recombinant innovation
Apple iPhone, 100
iTunes and major music labels, 96
styles of, 89
collective user value, 1–22
building on, 103
Flickr and, 2–15
cost reductions from user strategies, 10– 14 listening to users, 5 positive network effects, 4–6
reaching and monetizing the long tail, 6
trusted context for interaction, 5 user value created through interaction, 7–10
impact on cost structure and cash flow, 19
uploaders and, 1
community building, ix
key role of active uploaders, 114 role in lowering costs, 20 community value, 113
company value, calculating, 14
Netflix versus Flickr, 20
company’s share of value created by a network, 30
competence syndication, 70–84
Amazon, 76–79
alliance with other sellers, 77
sharing backoffice competencies, 78
Facebook applications platform, 81–83
Google, encouraging mashups, 79–81
IBM and, 74–76
ecosystems vs. competence
syndication, 76
integrating Linux and Apache, 74

- mentoring open source developers, 75
- lessons learned, 83
- optimizing value creation and capture, 107
- SaaS (software as a service), 70–74
 - rewards and risks of Web syndication, 73
- competence-enhancing or competence-destroying innovation, 87
- competitive analysis, 111
- connections in online social and professional networks, 48
- Connectors (role in social networks)
 - offline versus high-speed online networks, 50
 - online, 48
 - real world social networking, 46
- Contactors, 55
- co-opetition, 99
- corporate strategy and innovation
 - developing dynamic capabilities, 68
 - external and internal forces, 67
 - impact of online syndication, 69 (see also innovation)
- cost drivers
 - analysis of, 12
 - Flickr, 13
- cost reductions to Flickr from collective user strategies, 13
- cost structures
 - Netflix versus Flickr, 19
 - Web 2.0, 20
- cost-per-action (CPA) online advertising, 24
- creative and media ecosystems, Apple, 95
- critical mass and demand-side network effects, 29
- CRM (see customer relationship management)
Crossing the Chasm, 92
- cross-network effects, 25
 - advertiser-searcher effects on Google, 28
- crowdcatching, 91
- crowdsourcing, 89, 91
- customer acquisition costs
 - Netflix, 15
 - Netflix solution to high costs, 16
 - Netflix versus Flickr, 19
 - Web 2.0, 20
- customer relationship management (CRM), 72
 - cost driver, 13

D

- Dawes, William, 46
- DCF (discounted cash flow) model, 14
Dealing with Darwin, 92
- degrees of separation, 48

- possible contacts on LinkedIn, 52
 - in social or professional network, 53
 - and trust in online professional networking, 55
- demand-side network effects
 - advertisers' willingness to pay Google, 28
 - and critical mass, 29
- demand-side scale economies, online networks, 25
- democratized innovation
 - keys to, in online collaborative world, 90
 - in Linux open source community, 91
- Democratizing Innovation*, 89
- Deutsche Telekom, alliance with Jajah, 100
- development costs in Web 2.0, 20
- digital content, opening to global user interaction, 7
- digital rights management (DRM), 97
- Dilbert comic strip, 114
- direct network effects, 25
 - advertisers on Google, 28
 - Facebook usage, 59
 - search engine, Google, 27
- discounted cash flow (DCF) model, 14
- disruptive innovation, 86
- DNA (recombinant), 93
- DRM (digital rights management), 97
- dynamic capabilities
 - developing, 68
 - firm-level and industry-level factors, 68
 - Flickr and dynamic networking capabilities, 6
 - IBM, 75

E

- eBay and PayPal, 89
- EC2 (Elastic Compute Cloud), Amazon, 78
- ecosystem innovation, 92
- ecosystems
 - building rapidly with viral distribution and cooperative advantage, 114
 - competence syndication and, 76
 - Flickr and digital photo ecosystem, 9
 - integration in Apple iPhone, 100
 - integration in Apple iPod, 93–97
 - accessories, 95
 - creative and media ecosystems, 95
 - production, 94
 - integration in Web 2.0 businesses, x
 - valuation of an ecosystem, 113
- Elastic Compute Cloud (EC2), Amazon, 78
- email, shift from snailmail to Hotmail, 47
- enterprise value, calculating, 14
- entrepreneur/founder net worth at exit, 21

entrepreneurs in Web 2.0 environment, 113
entry barriers, online networks, 25 Excite search engine, 32
exponential growth, 28

F

Facebook, 57–62
 applications platform, 81–83
 feature set and target audience, 62 making money, 62
 rapid growth, 61
 speed of growth and network effects, 59
 viral distribution strategy, 107
feedback, positive, 36 feeds, 69
financials, Web 2.0 business plan, 113
firm's share of value created by a network, 30 Flickr, ix, 2–15
 benefits for sales of offline products, 88
 calculation of company value, 14
 collective user value, 4–6, 104
 comparison to Flickr
 company valuation, 20
 comparison to Netflix, 18–21
 cashflow curves and time to
 profitability, 19
 founders' net worth at exit, 21
 cost drivers, 12
 dynamic networking capabilities, 6
 listening to users, 5
 profitability of sharing, 10
 reaching and monetizing the long tail, 6
 social aspects critical to success, 47 user value created through interaction, 7– 10 folksonomies, 8
founders, net worth at exit, 21
free services
 Hotmail, catalyzing viral marketing, 106
 role in growth of Flickr, 12

G

Gerstener, Lou, 74
Gladwell, Malcolm, 46
Google, ix, 23–42
 acquisition of equity stake in AOL, 38–40
 AdRank tool, 34
 AdSense and blogging, 36
 combination of network effects, 27 competence mashups, 79–81
 compounding of network effects, 35 features giving advantage over GoTo, 31
 lessons learned from Google's experience, 40

 mission statement by CEO, 34
 network effect multipliers, 23
GoTo
 getting advertisers to pay for keywords, 30
 Google's advantages over, 31
 Overture and syndication relationships, 73
Gross, Bill, 30
groups
 Flickr users, participation in, 8
 social network effects on Flickr, 9 Grove, Andy, 92
growth exponential, 28
 online networks, 25
 path to, Web 2.0, 41
growth rate, Netflix vs. Flickr, 19

H

Hanson, Chris, 91
Holovaty, Adrian, 79
Horowitz, Bradley, 106
Hotmail, 106
HousingMaps.com, 79

I

IBM
 finding competence worldwide, 74–76
 ecosystems and competence
 syndication, 76
 integrating Linux and Apache, 74
 mentoring, 75
 promotion of Linux community, ix
iLike blog, 82
image database, Flickr strategy for, 14 implementation of Web 2.0, additional resources, x incremental innovation, 87 indirect network effects, 25 industry analysis approach to strategy, 67 information technology systems and developers (cost driver), 13
innovation, 85–102
 architectural, 87
 bridging, not disrupting, 93
 categories of, 86
 collaborative innovation styles, 89 competence-enhancing or competence-destroying, 87
 competitive or collaborative, 87–89
 crowdsourcing, 91
 democratized, 89
 disruptive, 86
 fostering through ecosystems, 9
 incremental, 87

- lessons learned, 101
- radical, 87
- recombinant, 93, 108
 - Apple iPhone, 100
- Web 2.0 and, 85
- Innovator's Dilemma, The*, 86
- Intel, platform innovation, 92
- interdependent revenue streams, 10
- inventory costs, 13
 - reduction in Web 2.0, 20
- iPhone, 100
- iPod, x, 93–96
 - accessories ecosystem, 95
 - creative and media ecosystem, 95
 - music industry and, 96
 - production ecosystem, 94
- iPod Touch, 101
- iterative development approach, 20
- iTunes
 - music industry and, 96
 - software supporting iPods, 95
 - user-provided metadata, 96

J

- Jajah, x, 97–100
 - alliances that make it work, 99
 - free calls yielding viral marketing, 99
 - scheduling a call using company web site, 98
- Jobs, Steve, 97
- Jurvetson, Steve, 109

K

- keystone companies, 92
- keyword searches
 - GoTo, getting advertisers to pay for keywords, 30
 - increase in search advertising, 24
 - most profitable for online searches, 35
 - pay-per-click keyword advertising, 23 (see also searches)
- knowledge transfer, 68
- Kraus, Joe, 32

L

- “Leapfrog Link”, 55
- licensing and syndication revenue model, 11
- LinkedIn, 48
 - challenges in pure social networking, 53
 - electronic contact management, 51
 - invitation by email to join, 53
 - membership and usage patterns, 53

- types of online professional networking
 - user behavior, 54
- monetizing social networks, 56
- social network structure analysis, 106
- trust and degrees of separation, 55

Linux, 74

- democratized innovation in open source
 - community, 91
 - promotion of community by IBM, ix
- local network effects, 26
- long tail, 33
 - Google's mission to serve, 34
 - reaching and monetizing, Flickr example, 6
- loss leaders, 10
 - Flickr photo-sharing community, 12

M

- Macintosh computers, iPod and, 95
- mail, shift from snailmail to Hotmail, 47
- management and executive team, Web 2.0
 - businesses, 113
- market analysis, 109
 - key questions, 110
- market share
 - competition for, in tippy markets, 37
 - crucial point in markets with strong positive network effects, 39
 - relationship to revenue per search, 39
- marketing, advertising, and customer relationship management costs, 13
- mashups, 79–81
 - advantages and disadvantages, 80
 - versus Facebook's API approach, 83
- Mavens (role in social networks)
 - offline versus high-speed online networks, 50
 - online professional networking user behavior, 54
 - online social networking, 48
 - real world social networking, 46
- media ecosystem (Apple), 95
- membership revenue model, 11
- metadata
 - photo images on Flickr, 8
 - user-provided, Apple iTunes, 96
- Metcalf's Law, 28
- Micro Persuasion blog, 7
- Milgram, Stanley, 47
- monetizing social networks
 - Facebook, 62
 - LinkedIn, 53, 56
- Moore, Geoff, 92
- movie studios, innovation and, 88
- multiple revenue stream model (Flickr), 10

multiple revenue streams, 10
music industry, Apple iTunes and, 96
Musser, John, x, 80
MySpace
 comparison to Facebook and Bebo, 60
 competition with Facebook, 61 targeted audience, 60

N

Napster, 97
Net Present Value (NPV), 14
Net Worth at Exit (entrepreneur/founders), 21
Netflix, ix, 15–18
 benefits for sales of offline products, 88
 comparison to Flickr, 18–21
 cashflow curves and time to
 profitability, 19
 company valuation, 20
 founders' net worth at exit, 21
 costs of growth, 15
 escaping high customer acquisition costs, 16
 how it works, 17
network effects, 26
 activating, 104
 catalyzing and amplifying on Flickr, 9
 generated by web-enabled online
 networks, 24–26
 key role in Web 2.0, viii
 online customer value creation and, ix online, powerful multiplying force, 114 positive effects on Flickr, 4–6 and speed of growth at Facebook, 59
network of peers (Facebook), 62 Networkers, 54
networks
 dynamic networking capabilities, 6 (see also network effects; social networking)
news aggregator, 69
notes, photos on Flickr, 8
NPV (Net Present Value), 14
n-sided markets, 26
 demand-side network effects and critical mass, 29
 Google's combination of network effects, 27

O

O'Reilly, Tim, x, 51
open source Apache, 75
 collaborative innovation, 92
 competence syndication with IBM, 76

Facebook's open APIs, 81–83
Flickr's open APIs, 9
Linux, 74
mentoring of developers by IBM, 75
peer-to-peer innovation communities, 90
 Web 2.0 strategies applied by IBM, 107
open systems movement, 7
Overture (see GoTo)

P

p2p (peer-to-peer) architecture for VoIP, 86 PageRank algorithms (Google), 30
 optimization of search results, 32
Pareto Principle, 106
PayPal and eBay, 89
pay-per-click (PPC) online advertising, 24
 GoTo, 30
payroll costs, 13
peer-to-peer (p2p) architecture for VoIP, 86
peer-to-peer innovation communities, 90
personal knowledge, 68
personal network size and communities (LinkedIn members), 53 per-user economics, 113
photo management database, Flickr, 14
photo-sharing site (see Flickr)
platform innovation, 92
 Apple iPod, 94–96
 accessories, 95
 creative and media ecosystems, 95
Polanyi, Michael, 68 positive feedback, 36
power law distribution of searches (see long tail)
pricing analysis for online products, 110 production ecosystem, Apple iPod, 94 products and services, definition and analysis, 112
professional online networks, 53 categories of user behavior, 54
 trust and degrees of separation, 55
profit engine, business model as, 10 profitability, time to, 19
ProgrammableWeb site, 80

R

Rademacher, Paul, 79
radical innovation, 87
Really Simple Syndication (see RSS)
recombinant innovation, 89, 93, 108
 Apple iPhone, 100
 iTunes and major music labels, 96
Reed's Law, 28

- relationship information, LinkedIn search results, 53
- relationship managers, 54
- relevancy of search results, 30
- resource-based approach to strategy, 67
- revenue models, 11
- revenue per search (RPS) of advertising, 39
- revenue sharing, 12
 - Google and AOL, 38
 - Google and bloggers, 36
 - Google sharing with affiliates, 30
 - Netflix and DVD suppliers, 18
- revenue streams, 10
 - Flickr's multiple stream model, 10
 - SaaS (software as a service), 71
- Revere, Paul, 46
- Rock, Arthur, 113
- roles in social networks
 - offline versus high-speed online networks, 50
 - past and present, 45–47
- rolodexes. online, 53
- RPS (revenue per search) of advertising, 39
- RSS (Really Simple Syndication), 69
 - use by Flickr, 9
- Rubel, Steve, 7

S

- S3 (Simple Storage Service), Amazon, 78
- SaaS (software as a service), 70–74
 - costs, traditional software versus, 71
 - creator, 71
 - rewards and risks of Web syndication, 73
 - Salesforce.com, 72
 - syndicator or distributor, 71
- sales force automation (SFA), 72
- Salesforce.com, 72
- Salesmen (role in social networks)
 - offline versus high-speed online networks, 50
 - online social networking, 48
 - real world social networking, 46
- Schmidt, Eric, 34
- Schumpeter, Joseph, 85
- search engines
 - direct search engine network effects, 27
 - online advertising, 23
- searches
 - advertisers paying for keywords at GoTo, 30
 - better search through user-generated information, 8
 - listing of most profitable keywords, 35
 - long tail of search results, 33
 - PageRanking optimization of search results by Google, 32
- self-service tools
 - Flickr, 9
 - Google's Adwords, 33
- services, analyzing for Web 2.0 business, 112
- Sifry, Micah, 51
- Simple Storage Service (S3), Amazon, 78
- single revenue stream, 10
- "six degrees of separation", 48
- Skype, 97
 - free services yielding viral marketing, 86, 99
- social network effects (see network effects)
- social networking, 45–66
 - analyzing and mapping social network structure, 106
 - changes caused by online networking, 47–51
 - number of uploaders, 50
 - offline vs. high-speed online networks, 50
 - shift from snailmail to email, 47
 - Flickr and dynamic networking capabilities, 6
 - lessons learned from online networking, 62–65
 - acceleration, 65
 - climbing social networks, 63
 - targeting influencers, 63
 - value generation, 63
 - online contacts and content, 51–57
 - Facebook, online introductions, 57–62
 - LinkedIn, online rolodex, 51–57
 - online, hubs as keys to connection, 48
 - questions about using in business context, 65
 - roles, past and present, 45–47
- social networking sites, comparison of, 60
- software as a service (see SaaS)
- sponsorship/co-marketing revenue model, 12
- subscription/membership revenue model, 11
- success of online networks, barriers to, 25
- Success of Open Source, The*, 92
- suppliers' share of value created by a network, 29
- syndication, 69
 - online content syndication, 69
 - self-service syndication on Flickr, 9 (see also competence syndication)
- syndication revenue model, 11

T

tag-based approach (Flickr photo database), 14
tags, footnotes, and annotations (Flickr photos), 8 “technologies of cooperation”, 51
telephony, carriers working with Jajah, 97, 99
TEV (Total Enterprise Value), 14
The Tipping Point: How Little Things Can Make a Big Difference, 46
tipping of word-of-mouth epidemics, 46
 online social networking, 47
tippy markets, 37
 video tape recorders, VHS/Beta standards battle, 38
Torvalds, Linus, 74
Total Enterprise Value (TEV), 14 transaction fee revenue model, 11 trust in social networks, 5, 53 degrees of separation in online professional network, 55
two-sided network effects, 25

U

unit economics, Web 2.0 vs. traditional, 111
unit-based revenue model, 11 uploaders
 business and financial impact of, 1
 creating online critical mass and community, 114 number of, 50
user contributions, incorporating, 112 user value (see collective user value) user-led innovation (see democratized innovation)
user-provided metadata, Apple iTunes, 96

V

value analysis, 10
value capture, iPod production and, 94
value created by users (see collective user value; social networking) value generation in social networks, 63 value of a community, 113
Vander Wal, Thomas, 8
Varian, Hal, 95
VHS/Beta standards battle, video tape recorders, 38
videocassette recorders and movies, 88 viral marketing examples, 106
virtual mentoring (IBM developer network), 76

virtuous and vicious cycles created by network effects, 36

Visa credit cards, n-sided market, 26
VoIP (Voice over IP), 86
 Jajah, 97–100
volume or unit-based revenue model, 11
Von Hippel, Eric, 89

W

Web 2.0: Principles and Best Practices, x
web page for this book, x
Weber, Steve, 92
Wikinomics: How Mass Collaboration Changes Everything, 91 willingness to pay, relation to critical mass growth point, 29 winner-take-all markets, evolution of, 37 wisdom of the crowd
 crowdsourcing innovation, 91
 AdRank and, 34
 PageRank and, 32
word-of-mouth epidemics, tipping, 46

Y

Yahoo!
 purchase of Flickr, 14
 purchase of Overture, 33
 revenue per search (RPS), Google versus, 40

Z

Zuckerberg, Mark, 57
 growth at Facebook, 61
 target audience for Facebook, 62
 usage patterns at Facebook, 60